

BLONDE BEERS

Zinnebir (Brasserie De La Senne). A golden, perfectly balanced Pale Ale. It develops fruity and hoppy flavours that recall dry apricots and orange marmalade. The ensemble leans on a malty note, as well as a nice bitterness. Born in the basements of a Brussels squat in 2002, it is the founding beer of Brasserie de la Senne.
ABV 5.8%

Corsendonk Agnus Tripel (Corsendonk). This beer has hop aromas on the nose with spices and fruit notes. Spice on the palate with well-balanced bitterness lingering in the finish.
ABV 7.5%

Barbär Blonde (Brasserie Lefebvre). Deep blonde in colour, Barbär's creamy head gives off a powerful aroma, unobtrusively scented with honey and accompanied by a bouquet of floral, spicy and citrus notes.
ABV 8%

Malheur 8 (Malheur). A light blond beer. Malheur 8 has a fresh aroma with notes of lemon and grapefruit and flowers. There is a slight smell of herbs perceptible. It has a dry taste, with citrus flavours and a touch of sherry.
ABV 8%

Ommegang (Brouwerij Haacht). A straw-coloured ale with a dry and robust character, a complex bitter and a delicate citrus aroma.
ABV 8%

Keizer Karel Charles Quint Golden Blonde (Brouwerij Haacht). A blond special beer that is top fermented and has a spicy aroma of hops.
ABV 8.5%

Malheur 10 (Malheur). The beer literally boasts a bright yellow colour and a rich honey texture, it has incredible body and a bitter sour note in the warm aftertaste. "In short this blonde tasting beer that contains 10% alcohol by volume will delight beer enthusiasts the world over." (Beer writer Michael Jackson)
ABV 10%
