

TRAPPIST BEER

Blond, 8% - This blond, flavourful beer is a surprisingly refreshing brew at 8% alcohol by volume. It is lightly filtered, but still wholesomely hazy with yeast remaining in the bottle.

Bruin, 8% - This dark amber, flavourful Rich ale, lots of dried fruit and Christmas cake aroma, soft and smooth on the tongue and a rich finish with hints of dark caramel beer is surprisingly refreshing at 8% alcohol by volume. It is lightly filtered, but still wholesomely hazy with yeast remaining in the bottle.

Chimay Red (7), 7% - The Chimay Red is the oldest of the Chimays. Its coppery color and sweet, fruity taste make it a particularly tasty dark ale.

Chimay Tripel (8), 8% - This is the brewery's most recent creation. It is golden in colour, and succeeds remarkably in blending mellowness and bitterness.

Chimay Blue (9), 9% - The Chimay Blue is a dark ale with a powerful aroma. Its complex flavor improves with passing time.

Orval beer is a high fermentation beer. The ageing process adds a fruity note, which strikes a subtle balance between the beer's full-bodied yet complex flavour and bitterness. 6.2% (as an extra special, ask to see whether we have any 6+ months in stock).

Rochefort 6, 7.5% - The Rochefort 6 is a Belgian dubbel ale and the oldest of the three Trappist ales. It is deep amber in colour with a dense head that leaves gorgeous lace down the glass. This outstanding dubbel has spicy, malty, dried fruit aromas--it is complex yet inviting.

Rochefort 8, 9.2% - A dark Trappist dubbel, with a gorgeous dark copper colour and big aromas of raisins, dates and banana. It's smooth and slightly sweet before the drier, herbal finish.

Rochefort 10, 10.2% - This Belgian Trappist beer is one of the best and most revered beers in the world. It is a dark quadruple ale with loads of dark fruit, chocolate and liquorice, as well as some banana from the Belgian yeast.

Westmalle Dubbel, 7% - A dark, reddish-brown Trappist beer with a secondary fermentation in the bottle. The creamy head has the fragrance of special malt and leaves an attractive lace pattern in the glass. The flavour is rich and complex, herby and fruity with a fresh-bitter finish.

Westmalle Tripel, 9.5% - A deep golden colour with a good dense head leads the way for complex flavours and aromas. Delicate aromas of spice and citrus fruits are complemented by initial flavours of spices mingling with the alcohol.

The only place to buy this World Class Trappist beer is the monastery itself.

Westvleteren 8, 8% - Taste is sweet, dark fruits, caramel, light malty. Medium body, average carbonation. Westvleteren 8 is brown coloured and has quite a full and creamy head. This glorious craft beer has a beautiful body and a wonderful aroma.

Westvleteren 12, 10.5% - Voted by many as the World's best beer. This Trappist, also referred to as the Flemish Burgundy, has a dark amber colour, a stable, strong lacing and a white head. Westvleteren 12 is a masterpiece in its complexity but wonderful in its simplicity.

Dutch trappist brewed at The Koningshoeven brewery in Berkel-Enschot.

Puur 4.5% - Only organic ingredients were used when brewing this Skal-certified ale. The result is an accessible, refreshing and smooth Trappist ale with a pleasant bitterness and a mild, dry finish.

Wit 5.5% - A drinkable and refreshing thirst-quencher. Smooth, malty, slightly sour and tingling because it's carbonated.

Blond 6.5% - An agreeable, tingling ale with a slightly sweet, softly bitter and malty taste.

Dubbel 7% - A classic, dark Trappist ale with a full malty, caramel-sweet taste and a subtle influence of dates, honey and dried fruits.

Tripel 8% - a classic Trappist ale with a powerful and full taste. In addition, the ale has a candy-sweet and light-malty character.

Quadrupel 10% - the heaviest ale of La Trappe Trappist ales and is eponymous of this ale style. A full, warming and intensive taste. Malty with the sweet tones of date and caramel.
